Office of the Comptroller

Website

Mission Statement

"It is the responsibility of the Comptroller's Office of Maryland to provide the very latest tax and financial information to residents. In addition, it is incumbent upon every member of this agency to adhere to the three R's: treating taxpayers with respect, ensuring that we are responsive to taxpayer needs, and getting results in a timely manner.

"Further, it is our mandate to provide a transparent, lighted path forward in government; opening the Free state's books and deciphering in the clearest way possible how taxpayer dollars are spent, and what Marylanders get in return for their hard work.

"The Comptroller of Maryland and the entire agency stand at the ready to serve the taxpayers, vendors, and tax professionals of Maryland" (official website).

Note

Maryland does not have an Office of the Inspector General, but some departments, including Human Services and Public Safety & Correctional Services, have their own.
