Federal Food and Drug Act of 1906. (The “Wiley Act”) Public Law Number 59-384 34 STAT. 768 (1906) 21 U.S.C. Sec 1-15 (1934) (Repealed in 1938 BY 21 U.S.C. Sec 329 (a))

Public Law 59-384, 34 STAT 768, “An Act of June 30, 1906, for Preventing the Manufacture, Sale, or Transportation of Adulterated or Misbranded or Poisonous or Deleterious Foods, Drugs, Medicines, and Liquors, and for Regulating Traffic Therein, and for Other Purposes”

SEC. 6. The term "food," shall include all articles used for food, drink, confectionery, or condiment by man or other animals, whether simple, mixed, or compound.

SEC. 7. That for the purpose of this Act an article shall be deemed to be adulterated:

In the case of food:

First. If any substance has been mixed and packed with it in such a way as to reduce, lower or negatively affect its quality or strength.

Second. If any substance has been substituted wholly or in part for the food article.

Third. If any important part of the food article has been wholly or in part removed.

Fourth. If it be mixed, colored, powdered, coated, or stained in a way where damage or inferiority is concealed.

Fifth. If it contains any added poisonous or other added bad ingredient which may cause it to be harmful to health: The provisions of this Act shall be construed as applying only when food is ready for consumption, and not transportation.

Sixth. If it consists in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid animal or vegetable substance, or any part of an animal unfit for food, whether manufactured or not, or if it is the product of a diseased animal, or one that has died in a way that is not by slaughter.
