Mr. Leon D. Black

Dear Mr. Black:

On June 26, 2026, you appeared before the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform (Committee) for the purpose of answering questions related to the Committee's investigation into: (i) the alleged mismanagement of the federal government's investigation into Mr. Jeffrey Epstein and Ms. Ghislaine Maxwell, (ii) the circumstances and subsequent investigations of Mr. Epstein's death, (iii) the operation of sex-trafficking rings and ways for the federal government to effectively combat them, (iv) ways in which Mr. Epstein and Ms. Maxwell sought to curry favor and exercise influence to protect their illegal activities, and (v) potential violations of ethics rules related to elected officials. However, during that interview, you refused to answer many questions involving non-disclosure agreements that relate directly to the Committee's investigation. Therefore, please see the attached subpoena compelling the production of documents on or before July 10, 2026.

The Committee's questions regarding the use of non-disclosure or other confidentiality agreements by individuals associated with Mr. Epstein and Ms. Maxwell are directly relevant to understanding the operation of sex-trafficking rings, potential impediments to the federal government's investigations of sex-trafficking rings, and potential methods for Mr. Epstein and Ms. Maxwell to exercise influence over associates to protect their illegal activities. Based on public reporting and information received by the Committee, the Committee has reason to believe you were a party to non-disclosure or other confidentiality agreements related to Mr. Epstein or Ms. Maxwell, their associates, or their potential victims. The Committee seeks these documents to inform legislative solutions to improve federal efforts to combat sex trafficking and prevent the use of non-disclosure or other confidentiality agreements to cover-up potential criminal activities.

The Committee on Oversight and Government Reform is the principal oversight committee of the U.S. House of Representatives and has broad authority to investigate "any matter" at "any time" under House Rule X.¹ Further, pursuant to House Rule XI clause 2(k)(6) "...the chair shall receive and the committee shall dispose of requests to subpoena additional witnesses."² Additionally, House Rule XI clause 2(m)(1)(B) grants Committees of the House of Representatives the authority "to require, by subpoena or otherwise, the attendance and testimony of such witnesses and the production of such books, records, correspondence,

1. In complying with this subpoena, you are required to produce all responsive documents that are in your possession, custody, or control, whether held by you or your past or present agents, employees, and representatives acting on your behalf. You should also produce documents that you have a legal right to obtain, that you have a right to copy or to which you have access, as well as documents that you have placed in the temporary possession, custody, or control of any third party. Subpoenaed records, documents, data, or information should not be destroyed, modified, removed, transferred, or otherwise made inaccessible to the Committee.
2. In the event that any entity, organization or individual denoted in this subpoena has been, or is also known by any other name than that herein denoted, the subpoena shall be read also to include that alternative identification.
3. The Committee's preference is to receive documents in electronic form in lieu of paper productions.
4. Documents produced in electronic format should also be organized, identified, and indexed electronically.
5. Electronic document productions should be prepared according to the following standards:
 - a. The production should consist of single page Portable Document Format ("PDF"), files accompanied by a Concordance-format load file, an Opticon reference file, and a file defining the fields and character lengths of the load file.
 - b. Document numbers in the load file should match document Bates numbers and TIF file names.

To the extent more than one CD, hard drive, memory stick, thumb drive, box or folder is produced, each CD, hard drive, memory stick, thumb drive, box or folder should contain an index describing its contents.
7. Documents produced in response to this subpoena shall be produced together with copies of file labels, dividers or identifying markers with which they were associated when the subpoena was served.
8. When you produce documents, you should identify the paragraph in the Committee's schedule to which the documents respond.

9. It shall not be a basis for refusal to produce documents that any other person or entity also possesses non-identical or identical copies of the same documents.
10. If any of the subpoenaed information is only reasonably available in machine-readable form (such as on a computer server, hard drive, or computer backup tape), you should consult with the Committee staff to determine the appropriate format in which to produce the information.
11. If compliance with the subpoena cannot be made in full by July 10, 2026, at 12:00 noon, compliance shall be made to the extent possible by that date. An explanation of why full compliance is not possible shall be provided no later than July 10, 2026, at 12:00 noon.
12. In the event that a document is withheld on any basis, provide a log containing the following information concerning any such document: (a) the basis for withholding the document; (b) the type of document; (c) the general subject matter; (d) the date, author, and addressee; and (e) the relationship of the author and addressee to each other.
13. In the event that a document is redacted for any reason—including to protect the personally identifiable information of victims, alleged victims, or witnesses—provide a log containing the following information concerning any such redaction: (a) the Bates number of each document containing a redaction and (b) the basis for each redaction.
14. In complying with the subpoena, be apprised that the U.S. House of Representatives and the Committee do not recognize: any purported non-disclosure privileges associated with the common law including, but not limited to, the deliberative process privilege, the attorney client privilege, and attorney work product protections; any purported privileges or protections from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act; or any purported contractual privileges, such as non-disclosure agreements.
15. If any document responsive to this subpoena was, but no longer is, in your possession, custody, or control, identify the document (stating its date, author, subject and recipients) and explain the circumstances under which the document ceased to be in your possession, custody, or control.
16. If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this subpoena referring to a document is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or is otherwise apparent from the context of the subpoena, you are required to produce all documents which would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.
17. This subpoena is continuing in nature and applies to any newly discovered information. Any responsive record, document, compilation of data or information, not produced because it has not been located or discovered by the return date, shall be produced immediately upon subsequent location or discovery.
18. All documents shall be Bates-stamped sequentially and produced sequentially.

19. Two sets of documents shall be delivered, one set to the Majority Staff and one set to the Minority Staff. When documents are produced to the Committee, production sets shall be delivered to the Majority Staff in Room 2157 of the Rayburn House Office Building and the Minority Staff in Room 2105 of the Rayburn House Office Building.
